

JESUS FOR THE KIDS

A National children's leaders conference in Stockholm

February 3-5, 2017

For the third time, this conference is arranged for you who wants to give Jesus and the stories of the Bible to the children of Sweden!

After two appreciated conferences in Jönköping in 2013 and 2015, we now arrange a conference in Stockholm. With the Filadelfia Church as our base, we invite you to the third national conference for leaders in Children's ministry – this time with the opportunity of inviting more than two thousand participants. This we do with the expectation that Jesus will be present and wants to make personal encounters with us. This year we especially want to heed his invitation when he says "whoever drinks the water I give him will never thirst. Indeed, the water I give him will become in him a fount of water springing up to eternal life." (John 4:14).

Jesus himself is the main character of the conference for leaders in Children's ministry and we come together to be equipped for service. In more than 30 different seminars we bring attention to subjects to do with for example family, discipleship and integration. Among the international guests is the Englishman Keith White, founder of the international "Child Theology Movement".

The conference is aimed towards you who are or wants to be a leader for children, but also to you parents who longs for support in sharing your faith with your own children. Not least is the conference for pastors, priests or church leaders who have an impact on the work with children between the ages of 0 and 13, and with families in church. The conference will be a good opportunity to experience new things and to be challenged together with your team. This year we also want to aim a special welcome to you who originally are from another country than Sweden.

The main location for the conference will be the Filadelfia Church in Stockholm. The opening service will be on Friday February 3rd at 7 pm. Then we will finish with a Sunday service on February 5th at 11 am. For a detailed programme and more information, please visit the homepage (in Swedish): www.barnkonferens.se. For more information about the conference in your own language, contact blk17.engelska@konferenspasset.se.

Welcome to a weekend of being encouraged, equipped and challenged!
